State of GDAHC:

Presented by: Kate Kohn-Parrott, President and CEO

- Strategic plan
- GDAHC key messages
- GDAHC branding
- Membership video
- Corporate giving video

#GDAHCannualmtg

Healthy people. Healthy economy.

GDAHC has spent the past 18 months working on sustainability and strategic plans

Sustainability

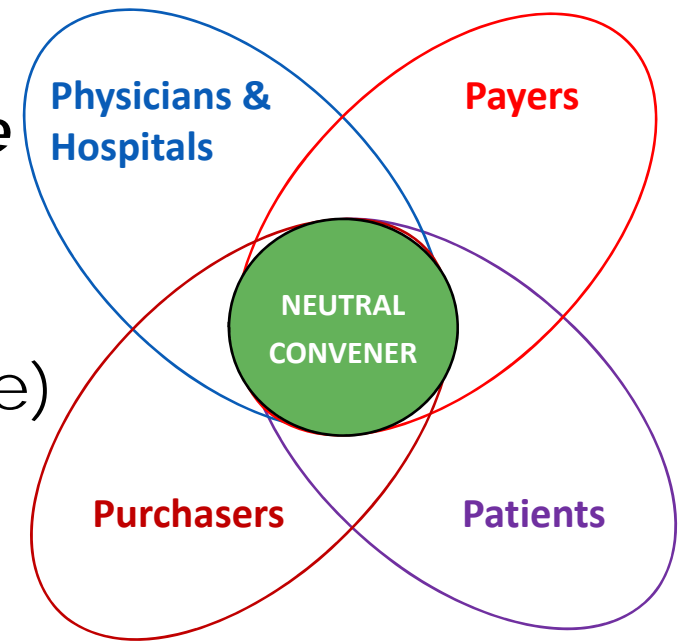

- Primarily Executive Committee
- Internally Organized and Led
- High-level Vision/Mission

Strategic

- Executive Committee and Board Members
- Externally Managed
- Retreat to Prioritize
- Workgroups
- Task Oriented

We quickly reaffirmed GDAHC's role as a Regional Health Improvement Collaborative (RHIC)

- A non-profit, non-governmental organization
- Working to improve health, transform health care delivery and achieve the Triple Aim
- In a specific geographic region (typically a metropolitan area or state)
- Through a collaborative effort of all healthcare stakeholders
 - Providers
 - Purchasers
 - Payers
 - Patients

Healthy people. Healthy economy.

As defined in a recent grant opportunity from the American Board of Internal Medicine and RWJF

A regional health collaborative [is] a non-profit organization whose governing body includes representatives of health care providers, health care payers, health care purchasers, and health care consumers and that operates at the state, regional or local level

#GDAHCannualmtg

Healthy people. Healthy economy.

Through the sustainability and strategic planning processes, GDAHC confirmed its vision

VISION

Healthy people. Healthy economy.

#GDAHCannualmtg

Healthy people. Healthy economy.

Drafted a statement of purpose

PURPOSE

To improve the health and economic wellbeing of individuals, organizations and communities.

#GDAHCannualmtg

Healthy people. Healthy economy.

And updated our mission statement

MISSION

GDAHC is a cross-sector, multi-stakeholder, non-profit organization that leads innovative and transformational programs designed to improve health, increase access to whole-person care and ensure that health care is affordable.
